46th Annual FRIENDS Gala

More than 400 guests helped to raise over $1.4 million at the 46th Annual Inner-City Scholarship Fund FRIENDS Gala on Tuesday, May 9, at Cipriani 42nd Street in Manhattan.

Special thanks to our Gala Co-Chairs, Regina Gannon, Kalliope Karella, Enrica Arengi Bentivoglio and Ana Diez de Rivera-Laffont for their hard work in making the evening a big success. Also in attendance were His Eminence, Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan, Archbishop of New York, and Peter Grauer, Board President, Inner-City Scholarship Fund. Both made remarks about the impact of this year's event on the students and families we support.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

As we look back on the 2022-2023 school year, I am delighted to reflect on Inner-City Scholarship Fund's (Inner-City) impact among the students, families and school communities we serve.

Inner-City has enjoyed a year full of tremendous support for our mission and excitement about what has been accomplished. We have created fresh memories with our longtime supporters, while making plenty of new friends along the way. Inner-City was able to award more than $15 million in scholarships to more than 8,500 Catholic school students across the Archdiocese of New York. As a shining example of return on investment, those very students unsurprisingly proved their excellence on national exams once again.

I hope you will enjoy reading more about the first half of 2023 and what we have done to support the lives of our inner-city students and their families. The stories speak for themselves in highlighting the achievements of our resilient students and their dedicated supporters.

We have exciting plans for the rest of 2023 and beyond. There are always more young people to help, and thus we endeavor to ensure any parent who values Catholic education for their child can provide it without financial burden. Thank you for your ongoing support—it is the reason why so many students can make their dreams a reality. 🙏

Sincerely,

Welcome to the Inner-City Board of Trustees, Donna Kalajian Lagani

We are delighted to announce that Donna Kalajian Lagani has recently joined the Inner-City Scholarship Fund Board of Trustees.

Ms. Lagani is Vice President and Eastern Director of the Hearst Foundations. Prior to joining the Hearst Foundations in 2019, Ms. Lagani spent 25 years at Hearst Magazines. Ms. Lagani joined Hearst Magazines in 1995 as Publisher of Cosmopolitan and was named Publishing Director in 1999. She added oversight of Seventeen in 2014 and Women's Health in 2018, following Hearst's acquisition of Rodale. During her career at Cosmopolitan, Ms. Lagani introduced groundbreaking initiatives, most recently through mobile and artificial intelligence technology. During her tenure, she helped launch

Donna Kalajian Lagani

CosmoGIRL! and Cosmo for Latinas. She was a strong force in bringing Cosmopolitan to new platforms, including Snapchat and SiriusXM Radio.

She and her husband, Joseph, have been Be A Student's Friend sponsors since 2019. We look forward to the insight she will bring to Inner-City in her service to the organization. 🙌

"I think we can all agree that New York is an iconic community. Its diversity and endless opportunities make it one of the truly great places to live and learn. The same can be said of our schools," said Jill Lloyd, Executive Director of Inner-City Scholarship Fund. "Inner-City supported schools are not only integral to our city, but to the individual communities they serve. From the South Bronx to Chinatown, from the Upper West Side to Staten Island, our students are part of the diverse fabric of this city."

Raquel Ovalles, a junior and Inner-City scholarship recipient attending Cardinal Spellman High School in the Bronx, highlighted the strong relationships she has developed with friends and teachers, as well as the academically challenging education she receives at school. Raquel also participates in extracurricular activities such as the Spellman's Women's Empowerment Club and Stage Crew. She dreams of double majoring in law and business at Columbia University, with the hopes of running a successful law firm in the future.

In addition to dinner and dancing, guests enjoyed a live performance of a few iconic songs about New York City by the talented students from St. Raymond Elementary School and Cardinal Spellman High School, both in the Bronx and Notre Dame School in Manhattan. 🙌

2023 Graduation Reception

On Thursday, May 11, over 100 members from the class of 2023 attended a graduation celebration along with their sponsors.

Our sponsors travelled far and wide to be at the reception held at Cathedral High School; a true testament to their commitment to their sponsored students. Some of the sponsors had never met their students before, while others had met numerous times. It was a special gathering for old and new friends.

There were six Inner-City board members in attendance at the reception: Tom Golden, Peter Grauer, Mo Rocca, Steve Rooney, Christine Schwarzman and Melanie Shugart.

Recognized at the event were two sponsors who are responsible for the longest running sponsorship in this year's graduating class: board member, Jim Naughton, and his wife, Laura Richards. Jim and Laura started their sponsorship of Santam C. in September 2009 when he started pre-K at Our Lady of Lourdes. Their long-lasting sponsorship continued to support Santam all the way through his graduation from All Hallows High School. Thank you, Jim and Laura!

We congratulate our graduating students on this milestone and cannot wait to hear about their accomplishments throughout the next phase of their academic career and beyond. 🎓

Job Opportunities Program

The Job Opportunities Program (JOP) gives high school juniors attending inner-city schools in the Archdiocese of New York the opportunity to hone their interview and interpersonal skills and gain experience in a business setting. Students participate in job-readiness workshops that cover essential skills like resume-writing, finances, and office etiquette. They also have the opportunity for paid summer internships at many of New York's most prestigious companies and organizations.

One of the organizations that has been especially generous to our JOP students is Haymarket Media (Haymarket). John Crewe, the Data Protection Officer at Haymarket has been involved with Inner-City Scholarship Fund for over 20 years and brought the Job Opportunities Program to Haymarket in 2008 when they hosted their first summer intern.

Initially, they were skeptical about placing a high-school-aged intern in their fast-paced environment. That concern quickly dissipated following their first experience with a JOP student. The summer of 2023 will mark the welcoming of Haymarket's 32nd and 33rd JOP interns.

Crewe told us, "Our experience, bar none, has been excellent with every student intern. I like to believe this is a product of the preparation they receive in their school environment and through the workshops."

In two separate instances, JOP interns have returned to Haymarket as full-time employees. Former JOP students, Kwamesha Joseph (2013) and Sabrina Sanchez (2017), now work for Haymarket Media in the medical content and creative editing departments respectively.

We got the chance to talk with Kwamesha. She told us "JOP has been integral to my success. I learned in the program to always do something to set yourself apart, which is how I have now been working at Haymarket Media for over a decade."

Crewe went on to say "We are enthusiastic about our continued partnership with the Job Opportunities Program and want to encourage other companies to participate. The students we have hosted have embodied such hope and aspiration, which has inspired those around them and the teams that have worked with these students each summer."

The Job Opportunities Program is always on the lookout for volunteers to lead workshops and for companies interested in offering internships. If you are interested in volunteering or having one of our students intern with your organization, please contact Info@InnerCityNYC.org. 🌍

A Jimmy Lee Scholar Continues to Learn

The “Jimmy Lee Scholars Fund” is an endowment established in memory of longtime Inner-City trustee and supporter, James “Jimmy” B. Lee, Jr. Through the generosity of JPMorgan Chase & Co. and family and friends, this fund provides scholarships for low-income students attending Catholic high schools within the Archdiocese of New York.

The need-based scholarships are awarded to students who meet the program’s criteria and have been vetted by the Fund’s committee of volunteers. In order to be eligible, students must participate in a school sponsored athletic or extracurricular program and demonstrate a cumulative grade point average of 85 percent or above.

Beyond financial support, the Jimmy Lee Scholars attend panels on different topics such as healthcare, entrepreneurship, and banking. At a career fair set up for students, Jamie Lee, managing partner at Tamarack Global and son of Jimmy Lee, presented on venture capital. After the presentation, an enthusiastic scholarship recipient named Steven Fernandez, approached Jamie with a genuine interest in his presentation and career field and a mutually fruitful connection was born.

After graduating from St. Raymond High School for Boys in 2019, Steven maintained his connection with Jamie throughout college and continued to demonstrate a strong interest in finance. Upon graduating from college this past spring with a BS in Business Administration from the College of Mount Saint Vincent, Steven asked Jamie for assistance in finding a job and was offered a position at Tamarack Global as a project intern.

This summer, Tamarack Global and Jamie Lee have given Steven a wonderful opportunity to expand not only his resume, but also his business portfolio. He is currently working on an investment memo that requires conducting extensive research on a company that Tamarack might consider investing in or exploring further in the future. The completed project will come about through invaluable business experience and an intimate glimpse into the world of venture capital. “When Steven goes to an interview after this internship, he will have 15 pages of research that looks really good. If somebody presented that to me in an interview, I would find it much more interesting than a resume,” said Jamie Lee.

Jamie Lee told us “Inner-City Scholarship Fund has been a big part of my family’s philanthropic endeavors for a long time. My dad attributed a lot of his success to his Catholic education, so it was clear to him that Inner-City was the horse he wanted to back. When I was Steven’s age, I had every chance to advance my own education. Not everyone is given that opportunity, which is what keeps me and my family invested in Inner-City Scholarship Fund.”

Thank you to the Jimmy Lee Scholars Fund Committee and all who support this effort. For more information about Inner-City Scholarship Fund and programs like the Jimmy Lee Scholars Fund, contact us at Info@InnerCityNYC.org. 🚢

Inner-City Students Achieve Greatness Before and After Graduation

Watching our students graduate from high school and embark on the next phase of their educational journeys is one of the most precious joys of being involved with Inner-City Scholarship Fund. Meet two of our most recent graduates, Shania Marte and Fernando Mosso; shining examples of bright and talented students who seized an opportunity and charted a path for their future.

Shania and Fernando are both beginning impressive new educational chapters this fall. Shania will be attending the University of Notre Dame and Fernando will be staying closer to home to study mechanical engineering at New York University. Not only will they be attending two prestigious universities, they both were awarded full scholarships to do so. These achievements are a great testament to the impact of Catholic education.

Shania and Fernando are amongst the 98% of Inner-City scholarship recipients who are accepted to post-secondary education. Both students attribute their success to the opportunity their scholarship provided them at their respective Catholic high schools.

Fernando says it was the support of Inner-City Scholarship Fund that not only brought him to graduation day at Cardinal Hayes, but propelled him toward his acceptance and eventually scholarship provided by NYU. 🎓

Learning to Look

The FRIENDS of Inner-City Scholarship Fund enhance the education of students attending Inner-City supported schools through various enrichment opportunities, one being the Learning to Look program.

The program trains volunteers to teach a six-session mini-course in art appreciation to elementary school students throughout the school year. Learning to Look is designed to give students a comprehensive introduction to art history, beginning with 19th Century European art, and then moving on to American, Old Masters, and Impressionist/Post-Impressionist paintings and sculptures.

Learning to Look Volunteer

Students in the Learning to Look program at The MET

Schools in the program this spring included School of the Blessed Sacrament, Guardian Angel, Our Lady of Lourdes, and Our Lady Queen of Angels.

Following the classroom sessions, students took a field trip to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in May to see the works they learned about in class. The trip represents an unforgettable capstone to a year spent discovering the beauty and incomparable value of art.

Our students would not be able to enjoy this opportunity every year without the support of our dedicated volunteers. On behalf of our students, thank you for your time and effort! 🙏

Meet One of Our Friends

Meet Sophie, a freshman at St. Jean Baptiste High School.

When Sophie visited St. Jean Baptiste High School as an eighth grader, she knew she had found a home. "I could really tell it was a sisterhood," she says. "No matter the grade, you always have someone to bond with." In her first year, Sophie embraced much of what was offered: She plays basketball and volleyball; joined the newspaper club; and is active with service clubs. "My teammates and coaches gave me a welcoming environment to excel," she says. "If I'm struggling, they are always there to support me."

Sophie feels a strong sense of community at her school. On a daily basis, she is encouraged to pursue her dreams, and she loves the diversity and different backgrounds of her teachers and classmates.

"If I didn't have the scholarship, my mom couldn't afford it," Sophie says. "It's really a blessing."

There are many students like Sophie who are currently on the waitlist to receive an Inner-City scholarship.

Won't you help by becoming a sponsor for the 2023-2024 school year?

To learn how you can Be A Student's Friend sponsor and help a student like Sophie, please contact Alyson Vetter at Vetter@InnerCityNYC.org 🙏

Inner-City's Junior Board

On May 19, the Junior Board hosted the Spring into Summer Soirée at The Palace where they raised over $20,000. All proceeds will be used to provide scholarships and enrichment programs to our inner-city students.

Earlier in the year, our Junior Board provided several fun events for students, including a Valentine's Day party at Guardian Angel School and a Spring Party at Our Lady of Lourdes School in April. At these parties, they played games, made crafts, and decorated desserts with the students.

In March, the field trip committee organized a visit to The American Museum of Natural History with the students from Our Lady of Lourdes School. Students had the opportunity to learn more about our planet and explore life on Earth through exhibitions and activities. In May, they took students from St. Philip Neri School to The Bronx Zoo! At the zoo, the students learned more about the natural world and the animals that inhabit our planet.

Lastly, the Junior Committee Basketball League resumed for the season. This program is open to students in grades 6, 7, and 8 at Our Lady Queen of Angels School, Mount Carmel-Holy Rosary School, and Academy of St. Paul and St. Ann. The Junior Committee Basketball League helps students learn valuable tools such as teamwork, perseverance, fair play and maintaining a positive attitude; all while promoting physical fitness.

Our students remain grateful for the dedication of our junior volunteers. Inner-City Scholarship Fund's Junior Board is always seeking the help of young professionals who are looking to get involved in New York City in a social and charitable way.

Please contact Juniors@InnerCityNYC.org or 646-794-3324 for more information on how to get involved. 🙌
